

Kinship... but No Relationship

Kinship... But No Relationship!!! Defining who you are. Do you ever wonder where your relationship with God is? Do you ever find yourself being complacent? Do you know what is it to truly walk in the Spirit? Can you thoroughly define Kinship and Relationship? Can you tell the difference? All these questions are answered through theory and practical all in one in this book. Often times we struggle in our lives with our relationship with God due to the fact that we dont know where we stand. We let the pressures of life, work, family, marriage, and all sorts of things stress us to the point that we lose who we are, that dedication that we once had and we spend all of our time trying to chase that back but we dont know what has blocked us from achieving that goal. Well Ive found the answer KINSHIP. Kinship is a form of relation that doesnt add the fulfillment of a real relationship. Kinship keeps you at a distance it seems strong until the kinship is tried for relationship in which in the end you see it fail because of the lack of stability. Relationship on the other hand fulfills the purpose of God, reveals His intimate love, shows us His very grace. When we are in relationship we know because of the feeling (not just physical) that comes with this fruit. Relationship has remains it leaves the residue of great character and thats what God leaves in us through the relationship that we have when we are walking in that light. So again I ask you do you know where you stand in relationship? If you dont this book holds ten POWERFUL chapters that are going to guide you to building that relationship with God that no man can come in and tear it down because it something that was built in the Spirit and not in the flesh. So I thank you for taking this journey with me and I know this book will bless you like it has blessed me. We love you and bless you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ!!
