FROM THE ASHES OF PEARL HARBOR ROSE A STEEL MILL ON THE WEST COAST THAT WOULD HELP BUILD BATTLESHIPS FOR WAR; THE BOSSES AND EMPLOYEES WOULD CREATE ANOTHER WAR AGAINST TWO TOWNS THAT WAS SETTLED ON A HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL FIELD WHICH WOULD BUILD A DYNASTY FOR MORE THAN 25 YEARS. Synopsis: The Fo is a true high school football story of a class warfare between the bosses kids and employees kids at Kaiser Steel Mill which took place from the years 1974-2000. When Fontana High School opened its doors in 1952 and named the mascot after the workers at the steel mill (Steelers). The employees were honored but when the high school football team played their games against the bosses kids every year, they were treated at the steel mill as if their kids were losers just like the parents. That didnt sit well with the employees at the mill or the City of Fontana for that matter and after 20 years in a row of losing the town and workers had seen enough. The coaches that came to Fohi (Fontana High School) in the 70s and 1980s didnt just prepare us for football; they prepared us for life. They strengthened our minds as well as our bodies and left a never ending impression. With the life lessons we learned on the football field it helped us to prepare for the journey ahead and instilled in us the confidence to overcome any obstacle. The story is told through the eyes of Pauly as a kid, player and coach that covers the amazing sports journey of the toughest team and league in the State of California. A true story that became a sports culture you will never forget of the record breaking state and national playoff streak, the Slap, the plane, the parties, crazy fans and the game of football that was played like our country was built tough. Fontana went from the worst team in the league to the most feared and best in the State and Nation. When Fohi step their game up, so did the rest of the league and six different teams in a 14 year span would play in a CIF State Championship Game with five State Champions from three different teams in only nine years. No league was ever tougher! When you do things with passion people notice Its a Blind Side, Friday Night Lights, Remember the Titans and Varsity blues rolled up into one movie Something for everyone!
