

The Catholic Church

Anybody old enough to have known first hand the Catholic Church fifty years ago could testify that the health of the Church was then much better than it is now. The Catholic Church is losing , on the surface (only on the surface), her battle with the world after Vatican II. But, of course, in the long run , this conclusion is misleading. In its battle with the world the Church has kept intact her loyalty to the Gospel preached by her Founder two thousand years ago and she will keep doing so in the centuries to come till the end of time. This little book, modestly, shows why.
