

God Still Works

Rev. Eddie Watson is sincere in his conviction that God works-works, not past tense-His miracles everyday, everywhere and in every way. We have not and will never leave the age of miracles. Right now God is providing protection, answering prayers and offering guidance. He will use friends and family. He will use health issues and heartache. He will use people, problems and persecution. He will use kids, creditors and college examinations. He will use ministers, mishaps and mundane rituals. He will use loved ones, law officers and log chains. He will use doctors, deacons and angels and demons to get you to the point of true blessing. If you are not in a position to see Gods promises at work in your life, you should probably change positions! Through testimony of divine intervention, Rev. Watson proclaims the omnipresence and active hand of God in the life of the Christian today.
