

Later Than Expected (Great Expectations) (Volume 2)

Ben Blackbird has always been there for everyone else. He took care of his mother and sisters when his alcoholic father didn't. He raised his son alone when his wife got sick and eventually died from breast cancer. Ben has been his family's rock in every crisis situation. He loved his life, but he was lonely. Greta spent her childhood in the foster care system. She was always an exceptional student, but didn't have much experience with men. Years later, after enduring years of her husband's cheating and manipulation, her husband dies unexpectedly, giving her the opportunity to start a new life. Both Ben and Greta find themselves on the same delayed flight to Nashville. Ben offers to share the drive and they find an attraction along the way. Their romantic relationship continues, but her husband's past threatens to destroy their hopes for a long-awaited happily ever after.
