What does it take:to become a true spiritual leader?to find Gods way and to walk in it with such integrity that others want to follow?to be prepared to accept the responsibility of being someone others look to for direction?Taking the ultimate example found in Jesus, Philip Greenslade draws on his experience and enthusiasm to outline the characteristics of a true leader. Leadership offers an inspiring and challenging model for Christian leaders today through four fascinating sections.This book is more than a selection of techniques, methodologies and psychological insights. Instead, it takes us to the heart of the unfolding character of the leader God requires, by reminding us of biblical ideals found in Christ, Paul and other great saints in Scripture and history.
