

How to Have an Attitude of Gratitude on the Night Shift

This simple, accessible little devotional should be taken like a medicine in daily dosages: repeat as necessary until your spirit is heartened. I was moved in my spirit and heartened in my commitment to act by contemplating these lives and these prayers. I trust you will be, too. Expect to be sobered, nourished, uplifted, and spurred to responsive action. In short, expect to be blessed and edified. --Dr. William David Spencer

How to Have an Attitude of Gratitude on the Night Shift, with poetry by Teresa Flowers and narration by Jeanne DeFazio, is a precious collection of brilliant invocations of healing and grace for everyone in this world of trial and tribulation. It is a beautiful jewel to keep for everyone to read. --Ted Baehr, founder, Movieguide, Camarillo, CA

In a world where the sacredness of youth is desecrated by abortion, abuse, and divorce, the poetry of Teresa offers us images of hope and dignity, the hope and dignity that only Gods love and power can bring. Read Teresas poetic words and feel a surge of the life of God sweeping into our broken world with an intimate embrace. --Michael Manning, Catholic priest whose ministry is television, The Word in the World, Riverside, CA

The world needs the kind of simple, loving, faith-filled philosophy espoused in How to Have an Attitude of Gratitude on the Night Shift. It has a searing beauty that reaches deep down into ones heart. --Tony Duke, founder, Boys and Girls Harbor, East Hampton, NY
