

Wisdom for Grads

Graduation is the ultimate transition, because it seems to come all at once like an avalanche over hikers traversing the Himalayas. Fortunately, there are the time tested priorities of God first, family second and school and work third. This allows any sincere seeking soul to find and follow the Lords purpose and plan for their life. But, this intentional living does not come by accident; rather, its through prayer, meditation on Scripture, wise mentors and a disciplined focus on following Christ. It is tempting to ask Jesus to follow us, instead of humbly submitting to and following Him. He has the right path that takes us to His place of peace, security and adventure. The wise follow Jesus, because no one else has the personalized purpose for living your life. My hope for you is that this 30-day devotional helps you to focus on following Christ, and growing in His likeness as you transition through this stage of life. Boyd Bailey
