

Sea Of Tears (Voyage of the Pearl Book 1)

The Voyage of the Pearl is a coming of age story. A story that remains with the reader long after the last chapter has been read, and the book placed on a shelf. The Pearl is about a boy of destiny that fulfills a vision that has been foretold to him. In a dark time of hate and confusion, of no mercy and a horror that even the evil ruler finds that he cannot control that will befall them. An Artist that saw the futures shadow cast backward into time. A young star girl child curiosity rips time by coming to earth and the darkness that evades our world through the gateway into the sea of hope. For many years Atlantis is without a savior, an evil darkness covers the land squeezing the goodness out of everything the supernatural cloud touches. Until a small child a boy of destiny laid a hold of the pearl and the adventure to save his world begins. Will he find the clues in time before the island of Atlantis is pulled away from the earth? Where is the seventh sister, is she still here? The voyage of the Pearl is a coming of age story of a boy of destiny. He and his faithful friends must find the branch of life to give to an angel so that Atlantis will see the Sun again and the Arms of Hercules will open once more to the sons of slaves wishing to be free men. It is a turning of the tide a land shrouded in mystery and a hope for those who once had no choice to have a choice once again.
