

How to Train your Monkey: Mindset for Success

Everyone wants to get rich and to live happy ever after but not everyone is willing to do what it takes to achieve this long lasting success. I think we all want to buy our dream car and live our dream life. Some of us are crazy enough to go after their dream and if they dont give up - they live it. One of the most important things on how to live your dream life is never giving up. How can you win someone who never quits ? Simple as that but not easy... It is not easy to develop this mindset for success but it is possible on worth it. We are where we are in life because of our choices from the past. We can not change the past but we can create the future. Best way to predict the future is creating it. Think of your brain like a monkey. You have to train it and condition it. Teach it new tricks you want your brain to do. One of the tricks can be confidence or self-discipline. You can teach it anything you want or whatever you need to achieve your goal. Hundreds of years back or brains most important tasks was to survive the wild and not get killed. Time passed and surviving now is easier than easy and our brain has no idea what to do anymore. Happiness is not brains task, it is inner job.

95% of people have this comfort zone of not doing more then necessary. Leaving it is hard but without growth we spiritually die... Higher you standards is what my mentor always says. Surround yourself with people who are hungry for more, whose standards are high and your will see how much your own life will change. We have this habit of believing our eyes so we must see if it is really possible. In this book I have really poured my heart and soul so that I could help change lives for better. Nothing makes me more happier than seeing a truly happy person. More on: How to stay on the track, taming the monkey, finding the spiritual connection, leaving the comfort zone, becoming the person you would love to meet and lot of other good stuff is written down in the book. Another decision for your life will be made right now.
