

Hymns of Ter Steegen and Others / (Classic Reprint)

From the writings of the Friends of God of old time, most of the hymns that follow have been taken. Those of Mechthild of Hellfde, known also as Mechthild of Magdeburg, may be found in her book, Das iiiessende Licht der Gottheit translated from Low German into High German in the year 1344, and discovered in High German in the convent library of Einsiedeln in the year 1861. Mechthild, supposed with much reason to be the Matilda of Dante, belongs to the evangelical witnesses of the middle ages, known to us through Tauler, Suso, and others of those called the Friends of God. (Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and do not occur in the book.)
