

The book of Ruth, as Most Holy Place View

There are some tremendous pictures of what Father is doing in the Community of Believers in the book of Ruth. We want to exhort you to look at this book as having a lot to do with what is going on in many peoples lives, today. Do we want to hear from Father in this book as we go through it? If we do, then it will bring about change in us. If we do not hear what He is saying, then we are not growing. The most important character in this book is the man Boaz, who typifies Jesus Christ. Boaz is the kinsmen-redeemer or the mighty man of wealth. The name Boaz means strength and we are to be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might.
