

The Rooftop: A Crisis of Opportunity

Almost everywhere people are talking of a looming crisis facing the church. But what is this crisis and what can be done to prevent it? Author Dennis Pethers came to know Jesus before ever entering a church. Having now ministered for some 30 years all over the world, he is convinced there is something that can be done and firmly believes this crisis is actually a great opportunity. Now is the time for us as the church to face the new reality that is all around us, says Pethers, and engage with the ever-increasing number of people who don't even know that they don't know who Jesus is! The Rooftop: A Crisis of Opportunity is down-to-earth, honest, and filled with examples of how we can both face and grasp onto the opportunity that is before us. And as Pethers suggests, It all begins with a fresh vision of God's heart for the lost.
