

The Color Illustrated Wisdom & Promise Study Bible: Adapted from the King James Version

The Bible is a composition of several covenants which the LORD initiated with Adam, Noah, Abraham, Moses (Old Covenant), David, and Christians (New Covenant). A covenant contains both wisdom (the peoples responsibilities) and the LORDs promises. The peoples responsibilities are diminutive in comparison to the LORDs promises. Consequently, the promises are never earned by fulfilling the responsibilities. The promises are gracegifts to the people in covenant with the LORD. Responsibilities are commandments given by the LORD in order for people to live in fellowship with Himthe covenant relationship. Therefore, not only are the promises grace but also the commandments. Commandments are wisdom (Deuteronomy 4:5, 6; Matthew 7:24-27), and the promises are the life that proceeds from wisdom. The combination of Wisdom + Promise = Covenant. Trusting in the LORD for the promises without obeying the commandments is a rejection of the covenant; it is a rejection of the grace that comes through obeying the commandments. To trust but not obey is to have faith in the LORDs faithfulness to do what He said He would do without being faithful to do what He commands us to do. Instead of $W + P = C$, it is $P ? C$. Wisdom is both the way the LORD has chosen for us to love Him and instruction for receiving the promises (Deuteronomy 30:15, 16, 19, 20; John 14:15-21, 23; 1 John 4:7, 11, 12; 5:3). The combination to love the LORD and instructions for receiving the promises helps us to better understand why all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to wisdom (Proverbs 8:11). The goal of the person who loves the LORD is not the promises but wisdom. Wisdom is a gift from the mouth of the LORD (Proverbs 2:6), and one of the commandments for receiving wisdom is to search for it as for hidden treasure (Proverbs 2:4). Those who obey the commandments are wise, and those who disobey them are foolish (Matthew 7:24-27). Wisdom and foolishness were the two ways people chose to live in the times of the Old Testaments as well as in times of the early New Testament Church; and we still make the same choices today. Rather than looking at black words on a white background, THE COLOR-ILLUSTRATED WISDOM & PROMISE STUDY BIBLE uses colors to show the contrast between Wisdom and Foolishness and the relationship between WisdomPromise and FoolishnessCurse. The four colors I chose to identify the four categories are green for Wisdom, red for Promise, blue for Foolishness, and plumb for Curse. As you read The Color Illustrated Wisdom & Promise Study Bible, instead of seeing black letters on white back ground, you will see green, red, blue, and plumb words, phrases, sentences, and paragraphs identifying WisdomPromise and FoolishnessCurse. You will probably be as surprised as I was at how much of the Bible is made up of the four categories. You can see this in the following ways:

1. Exhorting the people to obey the commandments and receive the promises
2. Warning the people against disobeying the commandments and receiving the curses
3. Commentary on the people who obeyed the commandments and received the promises
4. Commentary on people who disobeyed the commandments and received the curses

The Color-Illustrated Wisdom & Promise Study Bible will help you maintain the proper balance between wisdom and promises, associate faith with faithfulness, choose the way of wisdom and life, avoid the way of foolishness and death, and have continual fellowship with God our Father and Lord Jesus Christ (John. 14:15-18, 21, 23).
