

Worry Free: God Provides for You and Me

Believe it or not, children worry about finances and other things too. In this book, Jennifer uses a simple yet fun way to remind children and adults that God can and will provide. Through her own short story in the end, she reveals that generosity is the key to making this world a better place. This book can build up the faith of children and adults. Excellent book for private schools, churches, homes, and play groups.
